BREVITIES.

Nun's veiling at Jamison's.
New novelties at Jamison's.

Dwight Nye has been in town for the past two days.

C. J. Brookins left for the East yesterday morning.

New calicoes and ginghams at Jamison's.

D. W. Wallis is in from Battle Mountain.

Gen. Davis came up from Oakland yesterday morning.

Mrs. Uhler was a passenger for San Francisco last night.

Postmaster Adkinson, of Virginia, was a passenger for the Bay last night.

Mrs. A. C. Bragg and Miss Lizzie Rhodes went to Sacramento last night.

Frank S. Mosher left for San Francisco last night. Hope he will do well there.

The "Peek-a-Boo" advertisement of the Scanlan Company is a very cute little picture.

Joe Jones is in from Eagleville. He reports business fairly prosperous in that section.

Hale & Norcross was steady at 4 40 yesterday. No change particularly in any of the other stocks.

Go to E. Meyer for the best cigars in the city; and for the least money. His long experience in the trade enables him to purchase the finest brands at the most advantageous rates, and he sells them accordingly. His proposes, as heretofore, to lead this particular trade.

The weather clerk had one of his peculiar streaks on yesterday. At early morn the sun, were favorable for a beautiful day, but soon the wind began to blow, and the weather was raw and cold. At 4 p. m. the snow flakes fell thick and fast, but this diversion only lasted a few minutes, when the beautiful colors of the rainbow were visible, and a lovely calm face seemed set over everything roundabout. The lovely moonlight night in part made up for the foibles of the day.

District Court.

The Ede-Sullivan case came to a sudden stop in the District Court yesterday, upon application of plaintiff to have it transferred to the United States Circuit Court.

Some jurors were excused until tomorrow, the 25th, and all others until Monday, May 14th.

The Savings Bank cases are set for and will be called to-day, but will be postponed until May 14th, at which time, at the request of Judge Boardman, Judge Rising will be here and preside.

The jury case for to-morrow is that of Hammersmith vs. Avery.

There are only a few more cases on the calendar to be disposed of.

Sugaring on.

This entertainment will be given at the Pavilion for the benefit of the Baptist Church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings April 24th and 25th from 6:30 to 9 o'clock. The syrup is pure maple and imported from Vermont. It will be "sugared off" in a 22 gallon iron kettle so that an abundance will be furnished for all who come. Old folks concert given each evening. Admission 10 cents. Hot sugar from the kettle 25 cents a saucer. Refreshments 15 cents.

To Jurors.

Jurors are reminded that they can get their per diem and mileage by getting a certificate from the Clerk and presenting it to the Auditor. Heretofore the custom has been to await the action of the Commissioners, but this is no longer necessary, and a juror can now get paid off as soon as he is discharged.

Webber Lake.

Mrs. Maggie Campbell has rented the Webber Lake property for the coming season. This lake is one of the most charming to be found in the mountains and the experience which Mrs. Campbell has had in the Hot Springs hotel, makes her qualified to manage the Webber Lake hotel to the satisfaction of her patrons.

Thousands of women bless the day on which Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" was made known to them. In all those derangements causing backache, dragging-down sensations, nervous and general debility, it is a sovereign remedy. Its soothing and healing properties render it of the utmost value to ladies suffering from "internal fever," congestion, inflammation or ulceration. By druggists.

DISCRIMINATION.

An Instance Cited Where Reno is Favored.

The Sierra Valley Leader is making a "kick" against railroad discrimination, and says:

The Railroad Commissioners will shortly commence a tour of the State for the purpose of hearing complaints of citizens against the railroad companies. While it is not likely that the complaints will receive much attention, still it might be well for those having grievances to submit them to the Board, for should the Commissioners neglect their duty, then they can be justly condemned. It might be well to have the railroad folks explain why merchants thirty and fifty miles north of here can sell merchandise as cheaply as those on the line of the railroad near here. As the C. P. R. R. say that they never discriminate, will they please explain why the tariff on flour, destined to the country north of us, delivered in Reno, is twenty-five cents per hundred, while the same article, destined for Truckee and Sierra Valley, is charged nearly one dollar per hundred. What ingenious argument can they devise to prove that this is not discrimination? According to their own statements, they never carry freight at a loss. Why then, can they not deliver goods in Truckee as cheaply as at Reno, Truckee being the nearer point? And why should they not be forced to do so? There is plenty of investigation ahead for the Railroad Commissioners, but it remains to be seen whether they will do anything or not.

Death of C. S. Hammer.

The Grantsville Bonanza, of the 20th, records the death of a gentleman who did business in Reno in 1868-69-70, as follows:

The many friends of Charles S. Hammer throughout Nye county will be pained to learn of his rather sudden death from pneumonia, at Pyramid City, New Mexico, on Monday, April 9, at 10 o'clock a. m. He was buried the following day. Deceased went to Pyramid City about a month ago and was employed in the mill as amalgamator at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and five children who have the sympathy of the people throughout Nye county. Deceased came early to the State of Nevada, and at one time carried on an extensive business as druggist at Carson City, after which he went to Salt Lake City, Utah, from there to Tybo, where he was in the employ of the Tybo Co., for quite a time as assayer; he went from there to Belmont as assayer for the Highbridge Company when they started their mill up and remained with them till it closed down; from there he wandered over California and Nevada, bringing up at Grantsville in 1880. He was employed in the mill for a long period of months, but failing health necessitated his following his family to Oakland, from which place he wandered through the lower country in search of employment. As an assayer and chemist he ranked with the best.

LOG ROLLING.

While Wrestling with a Fallen Tree a Lumberman Receives Consequential Damages.

While on a hunting excursion in the great coal and wood region near Carbondale, Pa., the writer met William Coil, a lumberman. Accustomed to life and labor in the forest from early manhood, he was a true Knight of the Axe. Many a tree had fallen before his ringing strokes, and fleets of rats had borne away to market the sawed products. Coil is a character and if Oscar Wilde is right in saying that all movements in unthinder labor are graceful, friend William, stripped for his work, and attacking a tree as Richard I. assaulted the heavy doors of Front de Bem's Castle, must have presented an admirable picture.

One day, however—but let him tell the story himself, as he told it to me:

"I was out in the woods, you know, trying to start a log down hill. Thinking I could get a better purchase on it from the lower side, I tackled it there with my log-rolling hook and threw my weight on the lever. She started, she did, but as luck would have it, before I could get out of the way, she rolled right over me. If it hadn't been for a lot of small limbs and brush lying in the road, which lifted her up, she'd have crushed me flat. As it was I got up without a 'broken bone, but with some mighty bad bruises."

"Then you were all right," said his auditor.

"Not by a blanched sight stranger. I took cold, rheumatism set in, and if I hadn't heard of BENSON'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS and used 'em, it's my opinion I should never have made another chip fly. But the Capsic Peace hold quick, and I'm 'bout as good as new. But there's one thing you can calculate on—I shall never wrestle with another log unless I have the advantage of the ground. Fur, as I told you before, if it hadn't been for them bushes I'd been smashed so you could 'a' sold me for a door mat."

The Capsic is the thing for rheumatism. It doesn't keep you waiting. The word CAPSICUM is cut in the center of the genuine. Price 25 cents.
